THE HOUSE

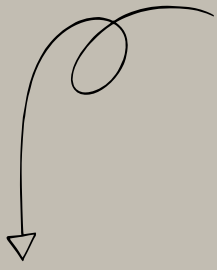

Designed for comfortable country living, the house is modern, bright and welcoming, with everything you need for a relaxed and independent lifestyle.

Large windows bring the surrounding landscape into the living spaces, while the terraces extend the home naturally into the outdoors.

Air conditioning provides heating and cooling throughout the year, complemented by a pellet stove and wood-burning stove for cosy winter evenings.

Here, modern comfort meets the simplicity of country living, creating a place to truly feel at home.

Spacious, thoughtfully laid out and easy to enjoy.

THE LAND

With 15 acres of private land, there is plenty of space for your own ideas to take root.

The property is licensed for keeping horses, with beautiful countryside and quiet rural tracks right on your doorstep – perfect for peaceful rides and hours of exploring.

The fertile soil, established orchard and private deep-borehole water supply offer wonderful possibilities for growing your own vegetables and enjoying fruit from your own trees.

The separate tiny house provides a peaceful space to work, create or simply retreat

Here, there is space to live, create and enjoy life at your own pace.

Where outdoor living becomes part of everyday life.

OUTDOOR LIVING

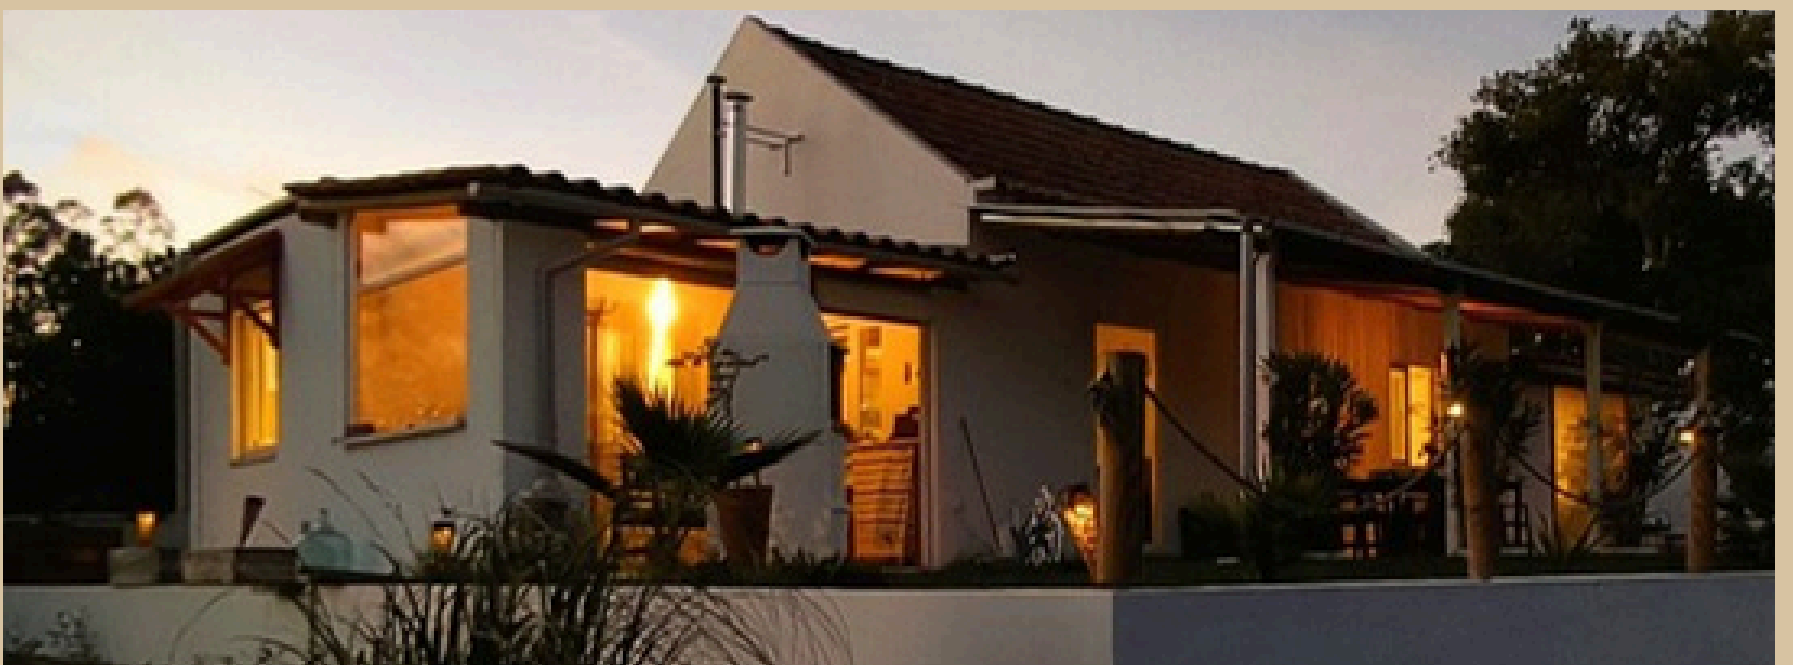

With terraces on different sides of the house, you can follow the sun throughout the day – from morning coffee in the early light to afternoons by the pool and evening drinks as the sun sets.

Whether enjoying a long breakfast, reading in the shade, sharing a meal with friends or simply watching the landscape change throughout the day, there is always a place to relax and enjoy being outdoors. The terraces, pool and surrounding gardens naturally become an extension of the home.

With Portugal's mild climate, outdoor living can be enjoyed for much of the year – making the home feel wonderfully connected to its natural surroundings.

Here, living space doesn't end at the walls.

Privacy and nature,
with everything you need close by.
